

COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES

College of Arts and Sciences
Lamar University
Department of Psychology
Guidelines for Tenure and Promotion

The purpose of this policy is to indicate the criteria, and decision-making process, the below are based upon sustained, high quality performance in teaching, research, and service, consistent with the criteria for promotion and tenure for the College of Arts and Sciences. The criteria for promotion and tenure for the College of Arts and Sciences are based upon sustained, high quality performance in teaching, research, and service, consistent with the criteria for promotion and tenure for the College of Arts and Sciences.

All numbered criteria listed below within each section are based upon sustained, high quality performance in teaching, research, and service, consistent with the criteria for promotion and tenure for the College of Arts and Sciences. The criteria for promotion and tenure for the College of Arts and Sciences are based upon sustained, high quality performance in teaching, research, and service, consistent with the criteria for promotion and tenure for the College of Arts and Sciences.

Associate Professor

I. Degree Earned

- x Doctoral degree in psychology from an accredited university

Guidelines for Promotion and Tenure

The criteria for promotion and tenure for the College of Arts and Sciences are based upon sustained, high quality performance in teaching, research, and service, consistent with the criteria for promotion and tenure for the College of Arts and Sciences.

course and to improve student learning ix À]•]vP v •šµ včZ•µ(%o%o}É]š/P šÇ%o • } (• OE À] OE]v } OE importance:

x Providing academic advising to undergraduate majors x D v]vP (µo %o OE Ÿ]%o Ÿ}v ~]X XU u}OE šZ v u OE %o OE • v v ŸÀ]Ÿ •
x ^ OE À]vP • (µo šÇ •%o}v•}OE (}OE v u] }OE %o OE} (••]}v

